

RE: NEW ELECTRONIC NOTICES AND DOCUMENTS LAW

New York has enacted a new law that liberalizes the delivery of electronic property-casualty notices and documents. The statute, §3458 of the Insurance Law, will benefit consumers, insurers and producers by permitting electronic delivery of notices and documents even where statutes require delivery by mail. The new requirements became effective on March 22, 2022. For more information, please see ELANY Says.
