Re: NEW CALIFORNIA REQUIREMENT ON BROKER LICENSE NUMBER INCLUSION IN EMAILS

The Surplus Line Association of California has published a bulletin on the California Insurance Department's guidance regarding a new law that requires licensees to include their license number on emails. The new requirements apply to both resident and nonresident surplus line brokers that are licensed in California, among other licensed producers. The DOI notice can be found here.

The email requirement becomes effective on January 1, 2023.
